Presidents Report:

Jenie reminded everyone of the Chili Cook off for Red Cross if anyone is interested.

Jenie attended the city council meeting where Life Tracker was mentioned at the council meeting. This notification would be through an app such as your Ring doorbell app works.

Discussion held on Christmas family. Department used to have a family every year, but was discontinued due to in house discussions.

This year it was brought to members attention that we have a family that could use our help if we decided to re instate it.

Motion by Nate to; use $250.00 to start this fund with second by Layce.

Additionally, we will put a boot out on table til the 24th of December for any additional funds from members, or if you have gifts that you would like to donate.

Motion carried.

Department Appreciation meal was discussed.

Tentatively scheduled for Saturday, January 27, 6:30, Plainsman in Juniata.

Chief Report:

Nate noted that there is salt on all trucks, as well as ice cleats.
Need to be careful with the weather being so cold.

Unit 32 is back in service. Tie rod and brakes repaired.

Deck gun for Unit 21 is to be in sometime in February

NIMS 300, 400 class to be held here. January & February weekends.
Let Todd know if interested in attending this class.

Todd noted that members can use wildland gear for medical calls.

Todd noted that we need fencing pliers on all vehicles to aid in getting to patients that have accidents on roads and roll into fields.

Department spent $2700.00 for equipment for trucks all at discounted prices at shows. Money coming out of donation fund.

Rescue Captain Report:

Reminded everyone of the EMS Conference to be held March 1.

Safety Officer Report:

Reminded to dress appropriately for this cold weather on all calls.
Should be taking 4 gas meters with us when we go on medical calls..

Chaplain Report:

Pastor Matt reminded everyone to look out for vulnerable people during this cold weather season.

Fire Training Report:

Noted Les Luger February 3-5.
Also noted Curt Maloney wedding on February 4.
January 9 is the next training night at department.
